

Blackmoor Gate Market Sale, Monday 30th September 2019

Exmoor Farmers report from Blackmoor Gate market held 30th September 2019, a strong entry of 2494 sheep at Blackmoor Gate this week. A run of 307 grazing ewes forward for sale met with a brisk trade as new buyers injected some extra competition. The best of the day was for a pen from CJ. Facey at £63.50 with other ewes from C. Eveleigh to £60. A pen of 6 from S. McCracken hit £56.50 and a pen of 13 from JOC. Dyer hit £55.

Cull Rams

Cull rams saw 2 forward with a top at £62 for C. Baker.

Breeding Ewes

533 breeding ewes forward for sale sold to a slightly easier trade than in previous weeks. The top of the day was for a pen from the dispersal of the flock for Mr. RW. Bryant at Higher Brown Farm, with his first pen of 18 2T Suffolk X ewes sold to £100. Others from the same home went on to sell for £92, £86, £73 and £72. The second dispersal of the day from Mrs. CA. Irwin saw ewes to £79, £77 and £72 twice. The best of the rest was for a pen from Taylors Farm selling North Country mule full mouthed ewes at £70.

Breeding Rams

Top of the day saw rams from RT. Kingdon sold to £390 with others to £290 and a run from Mr. FC. Reed saw 3 rams away at £310 with others at £300. With more rams expected next week we anticipate a continued strong trade.

Store Lambs

1557 sold to a similar trade to a week ago with the top price at £70 for Mrs. PV. Leworthy and the overall average this week stood at £55.87. Other notable prices included a pen from JE. Petherick at £67.50, a further 10 from PV. Leworthy at £67, being equalled by a pen of 25 from Mr. P. Land. A run from A. & T. Hawkins hit £66.80 and a bunch of 52 from Rackenford Manor sold to £66.50 being followed by Chris Raffe with pens to £66.20 and £65.80. Miss. J. Branfill saw a pen of 10 sold at £65.50 with V. Ellicott selling a pen of 21 to £65.20. A strong demand for all types forward again this week and a good show of buyers continues to drive a competitive trade for store lambs.

The next sale will be held on Wednesday 2nd October.
